

June 2nd will go down in history as a watershed moment --it will either mark this country's descent into the limitless darkness of thought control by the few and the mighty, or, pray God, the realization that a competitive environment in the nation's media is as beneficial as a competitive environment in any area of endeavor. Please do the right thing; do not take us down that dark path.
Robert Sherman